

2022 HARRY VOLD DUKE OF THE CHUTES SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

PURPOSE:

The National Intercollegiate Rodeo Foundation elected to create an award to honor and reward student members who have exhibited the traits and characteristics exemplified by Harry Vold, a lifetime member of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association. Mr. Harry Vold is widely recognized as one of the most distinguished and respected stock contractors in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association and the NIRA. He has been the stock contractor of record for the College National Finals Rodeo for decades. He has also been the PRCA's Stock Contractor of the Year eleven times, and one of only two stock contractors to provide stock to every National Finals Rodeo.

Mr. Vold was polite, courteous, loyal, faithful, honest, kind and generous. He was also very patriotic and dedicated to the sport of rodeo. He had sat on numerous PRCA committees and board of directors. He was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 1994.

Mr. Vold was a hard worker up until he passed away in March of 2017, he was 93 years old. He was actively involved in the operation of his ranch and the production of his rodeos.

The Foundation has chosen to honor Mr. Vold's dedication to college rodeo by sponsoring this scholarship to the worthy recipient. The recipient will be selected by the foundation board of directors at their summer board meeting. The scholarship will be awarded in the amount of $2,500, and will be presented during the College National Finals Rodeo in Casper, Wyoming. The winner is expected to be present.

Qualifications:

- Must be an active member in good standing of the NIRA and the institution the applicant is attending
