

2033 Walla Walla Ave . WALLA WALLA, WA 99362 . 509-529-4402

2023 INDIVIDUAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The National Intercollegiate Rodeo Foundation's RAWHIDE program will present individual scholarships to NIRA rodeo athletes in June. Each award will be for $500. Applications must be received in the RAWHIDE office by May 19, 2023; c/o NIRA National Office, 2033 Walla Walla, WA 99362. Late applications will not be reviewed. DISCLAIMER: Scholarship winners may defer the award. Winners will have two years to utilize the award. If the funds have not been used at that time they will not be awarded.

QUALIFICATIONS

- * Must be an active, participating member in good standing of the NIRA and the individual's college or institution
- * Must be academically eligible and making satisfactory progress toward an educational goal
- * Demonstrate RAWHIDE principles with regard to positive choices, commitment to personal fitness, balance of rodeo and other responsibilities, and academic and career goals
- * Evidence of civic and/or community service* Evidence of peer leadership
- * Dedication to achieving personal best in rodeo event

APPLICATION PROCESS

Section 1: Biographical Information

NAME _____

HOME ADDRESS _____

SCHOOL ADDRESS _____

PHONE NUMBER _____

INSTITUTION ATTENDING _____

EMAIL _____

Section 2: Short Answer, Please answer on separate sheet

1. List activities you are currently involved in outside of rodeo, and any honors or awards you have received since high school.
2. Discuss career goals as they relate to your college education.
3. Explain how positive lifestyle choices are important to you as a rodeo athlete.
4. How are you a peer leader?

Section 3: Recommendation

Attach two letters of recommendation from a professor, counselor, employer, rodeo coach, or other unrelated person who you feel could remark about your qualifications for this award.